

Dani Tal

Mobile: +972-54-6432802

Email: Dani.Tal@cio-1.com

Professional Experience

2010-2017 CIO-1 - Founder and CEO

- Founded and developed from scratch a CIO on demand consulting firm with Coca-Cola International as the main customer, subsequently adding Meshek Hay Labs, GGS Geological Surveys Ltd., Given Imaging and Maof – ministry of economics registered consultant as customers.

www.cio-1.com

2010-2015 Portalis-1 - Founder and CTO

- Founded a start-up company that specializes in workflows in the cloud.
- Undertook software development and first marketing efforts.

www.portalis-1.com

1998-2010 Siemens - CIO and Infrastructure Manager

- In addition to CIO tasks CISO – country information security officer, Web master and web designer
- 99.9% uptime on all systems, commanded a budget of 1M$, achieving excellence in internal customer satisfaction surveys year after year, managing infrastructure and software projects.
- Took care of multiple sites and users all around the country.
- Gained international support experience by supporting Siemens employees in Israel and Europe, managing the infrastructure department and external suppliers with different expertise including offshore software development for web based workflow applications.
- Environment – heterogeneous Linux Solaris Windows, TCP/IP, SAP, Domino.
- Built and supported 3 new sites; built the Siemens WAN in the country, managed the local Microsoft help desk project with 6 technicians on 4 MS sites all around the country.
- In parallel Unix/Linux and firewall system administrator.
- Hands on experience in debugging of software and hardware problems.
- Built internal and external web portals, selected ERP system initiation and programming and implemented web based workflow systems

1996-1998 ATL – Senior System Engineer In Engineering Support Department

- 3rd level support for system managers in the divisions, training operators of an engineering archive system (PDM, Metaphase) with hundreds of end users.
- Responsible for PDM systems configurations and methodologies.
- Provided innovative integration solutions
- Consulted and participated in large scale tenders and purchase activities

1993-1996 ATL - PDM Project System Manager.

- Built the project infrastructure and provided daily support.
- Created a centre of knowledge for computing integration in a PC MAC Unix environment.
- Operated and stabilized systems with scanners. Plotters and printers across OS.
- Implemented RAID systems on Solaris Sparc stations.
- Wrote service scripts in CSH and other UNIX tools for backup operation and monitoring. Specialized in postscript and scanned image printing. Evaluated software and hardware of around 100K$ per year for purchasing purposes.
- Planned an EDM system for an external customer.

1989-1993 Intel (IDC) with responsibility for PC support.

- Built the first PC network to be based on PC – NFS as well as the first PC support team in an R&D and office environment.
- Supported Informix based candidate system, SUN PC emulation, Banyan Vines clients.
- Projects – controlled document archive, Help Desk.

1983-1989 Haifa University

- TA, Teacher and lab manager of a PC-NFS, PC, DEC Ultrix lab.
- Student consultant on the university computer centre on PDP 11/40, IBM 43/41 and PC's.
- Supported the Mathematics and Computer Science department teachers and students.
- Teacher in Introduction to Computing courses for statistics, economics psychology and other BA students. Teacher in data processing classes for 3rd year economics students.
- Responsible for the students' consulting centre and the department of mathematics department computer lab.

Personality and social activity:

- Yearly participation in the Zofen Hakatons as a mentor and 3 years volunteering in the JA israel young entrepreneurs program
- Innovator, Excellent leadership skills, motivator, oriented towards due process and cost effectiveness, good communication skills both written and verbal, excellent presentation skills.
- Analyst. E&A Adizes personality
- Currently working on two books: Aikido for Business – a coaching book that brings Aikido philosophy to business people, and a new translation from German to Max & Moritz.

Specializations

- Computing infrastructure – Network communication, Linux, Storage, heterogenic Operating Systems windows 2003 and Unix including scripting.
- Software development and system integration
- Information systems management and implementation PKI, IDS, IPS, Checkpoint
- Information systems architecture - Client Server, WEB, 3 Layer, ESB- SOA
- Management – TQM, Adizes
- WEB master specifically Domino based including software development.
- Compliance Regulations, GRC - Security Weaver, SAP authorizations
- Network operating systems – Windows, UNIX, Linux, MAC
- Networks -WAN & LAN L3 Switches, Cisco Routers, Web sites, TCP/IP, email solutions, site to site VPN's, VOIP solutions, remote access and remote support
- ERP – SAP authorization roles, SAP user admin and printing
- Web based workflow solution including software development
- System analysis and design – IS systems, customer requirements analysis process documentation
- PDM/EDM systems, Images databases, scanning, engineering databases

Languages

English and Hebrew – fluent in both

German – very good language and communication skills, good reading and writing

Spanish, Arabic – limited speech and reading skills

Education

BA in Philosophy and History

MA – completed attendance requirements in Philosophy with

Complementary Studies in Computer Sciences (BA level)